NORTHPARK CENTER

It's not a mall. It's NorthPark. And it's a one-of-a-kind shopping experience synonymous with Dallas. World-renowned works of art are scattered throughout the corridors, where some of the top names in fashion reside.

Anchored by our editor's favorite location of Neiman Marcus, plus Nordstrom, Macy's and Dillard's, NorthPark is also home to Valentino, Gucci, Bottega Veneta, Cartier, Versace and Louis Vuitton.

But NorthPark isn't all high-end luxury with price tags to match. It's also home to a brand new location of Zara, AllSaints, Sam Edelman, Kate Spade, Anthropologie, Free People, Madewell and H&M.

Design Within Reach has joined the home furnishings lineup at NorthPark, which also includes Pirch and Arhaus.

HAPPINESS IS EXPENSIVE

Dallas didn't invent the luxury good, but the city has certainly perfected luxury shopping in Texas.

If your plans include returning home with a designer trophy, start at Highland Park Village in the Park Cities. Noted as the first shopping center in the U.S., this Spanish-style open-air center is where names like Chanel, Hèrmes, Saint Laurent, Balenciaga and Céline have all taken up residence, in addition to Draper James, Reese Witherspoon's retail concept. Think of Highland Park Village as the 5th Avenue of Dallas...without the traffic.

You can't talk luxury in Dallas without mentioning Stanley Korshak, the storied department store located on the grounds of Dallas' famous Hotel Crescent Court. This is the place to find Fendi, Lanvin, Gianvito Rossi, Jimmy Choo, Dolce & Gabbana and Dior all under one roof, not to mention arguably the city's best designer bridal salon.

KNOX HENDERSON

If you want to shop like the locals do, head to Knox/Henderson, where Henderson Avenue is the indie yin to Knox Street's big-name yang.

East of Central Expressway, along Henderson Ave., are some of the city's most beloved boutiques.

The Gypsy Wagon is known for trendy apparel and accessories with a Texas twist, and Planet Blue and Bella & Chloe stock upscale looks with a boho sensibility. Esther Penn and Milk & Honey have the most coveted fashions of the moment at shockingly wallet-friendly price points.

Coco & Dash serves up a curated selection of high-end home furnishings, while Birchwood outfits your home with humor and whimsy. Vintage Martini specializes in sought-after designer vintage, and the Warby Parker schoolhouse brings its signature online optical experience offline.

Travel west of Central Expressway to Knox St., and find big names in fashion and home décor at every turn. Kate Spade and Steven Alan lead the fashion pack along with Planet Bardot, an award-winning upscale boutique that features international and emerging designers. Mashburn is home to the elegant, sophisticated womenswear and menswear lines by Ann and Sid Mashburn, respectively.

Knox St. is practically littered with home décor stores, from Crate & Barrel and Z Gallerie to Pottery Barn and Restoration Hardware.

Just south of Knox, turn down McKinney Ave. for additional home décor destinations Erdos at Home, Mitchell Gold + Bob Williams and Jonathan Adler.

One block west on Cole Ave., Mecox is another favorite among Dallas interior designers and STAG Provisions for Men is a lesson in dressing today's Texas gentleman.
